The Board Secretary read into the Minutes the Notice of Work Session.

Superintendent Morral opened the meeting with introductions of the School Board and the Wellsboro Area Education Foundation. He explained the mission of the WAEF (Wellsboro Area Education Foundation) is to support the education of the students of the Wellsboro Area by promoting academic excellence at every level of education with the funding of educational programs, student activities, facility improvements and educational tools and support improvements. Mr. Morral then reviewed the status of the proposed Community Athletic Complex and the Capital Campaign. He also reviewed the current funding status. He advised that the sole intent of the work session was to get everyone on the same page regarding the status of the complex.

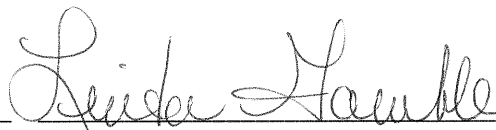

This was followed by discussion and input by various members of both Boards and various individuals representing different aspects of the complex.

Public Comment: Matt Hildebrand; Candy Callahan, Sean Callahan, Angelo Serva, Joe Davis, Mike Hotchkiss, Al Bieber, Cliff Cole, Jeremy Richardson, and Craig West.

The meeting adjourned at 7:59 PM.
